Classes

Busy hands lead to happy hearts filled with class work and class activities.

Can you recall in 1970 when you saw 326 Freshmen students hurdling to Liberty Union High School? Remember the knee socks and straight legged jeans? Today, 262 students will travel through the halls of Liberty and tomorrow the class of '74 will be seen no more.

Let's journey back and catch a few fragments of yesterday. The Class of '74 was first led by a woman president, Teresa Graves. Her rookie officers were eager students who can still remember the hardships of their first year. Richard Navarro, vice president; Louise Pachaco, secretary; Kyle Ferrill, treasurer; and Jeff Wheeler, representative were led by first time advisers. Mrs. Janette Evans and Mr. Dennis Buckley. They learned to organize dances, cake sales, sale of corsages and other money making events by trial-and-error. They found out how to put a float together in very short time with an occasional egg or tomato. Their theme, "Mats Can't Dig" was seen Homecoming night among the other floats.

Thundering cheers and voices always are in the minds of any freshman who attends his first rally. And always, Homecoming Rally is the loudest. Here, spirit jugs are given to the most spirited boy and girl from each class. That year enthusiastic KK Harrison and spirited Burt Broussard received the most spirited freshmen.

We are sure it is known to all that history is easy to write because the facts are recorded but the facts are only part of yesterday. To cover the excited twinge, the chance of a new beginning and a different atmosphere is only seen in the glow of freshmen. Time flies when new and exciting happenings spring up and now the class of freshmen are budding sophomores.

Homecoming soon was a great experience once the Class of '74 "got it together". From raising the most money in the penny drive contest to juggling an egg on a spoon, the sophomore class led the school. They received the most points during Homecoming day which entitled them to the spirit trophy. Later the same night, the sophos went on to win the float competition with the theme "Burn the Indians", breaking the Senior Class record of earning first place. Who can say who should receive credit for the hard work? The new advisers, Mrs. Janette Evans and Mr. John Meyer? Or officers Robbie Knight, president; Kyle Ferrill, vice president; Diana Galletti, secretary; Laura Serna, treasurer; or Jeff Wheeler, representative? Or a group of hard working enthusiastic students working together, striving for a goal? Many nights were spent at Lynn Wolfe's barn constructing the float. This year no eggs or tomatoes were thrown; only traditional paper flowers along with loyal classmates. Most spirited sophomores in 1971-72 were Rosemary Sciortino and Ed Laremore.

Selling key chains, sponsoring dances and the annual Sophomore Hop were ways the sophomores worked toward their senior year. On May 6, excitement and suspense arose as the climax of the evening arrived when Matt Jacobs and Linda McLendon relinquished their crowns to Burt Broussard, king and Diana Galletti, queen. "Precious and Few Moments" proved to be the appropriate theme for both the couples attending and the king and queen. The four prince runner-ups were Marty Bacigalupi, Mike DePiazza, Kyle Ferrill, and Mike Sanchez. The four princess runner-ups were Lizzie Dominguez, Laura Kaplan, Roseann Sciortino, and Laura Serna.

Two years down and two more to go was the count down for the Class of '74 in 1972. Under their new title, they carried out the slogan, "Big Bad Juniors". For the second consecutive year they managed to capture the over-all spirit trophy of Homecoming. They received first places in the bike race, jello-eating contest, and penny raising contest. Along with this announcement came the spirit jugs, going to juniors Peggy Kelly and Mike DePiazza. Later on that night, it was announced that their float received second place in float competition with the theme, "Mug the Mats".

Leading the way for the juniors were Richard Navarro, president; Susan Giannini, vice president; Laura Serna, secretary; Robin Lopez, treasurer; and Billy Graves, representative. Adding to their success were advisers Mrs. Jeanne Glenn and Mr. John Meyer.

From the spirit of Homecoming to the softness of a junior Prom, the class set the theme, "Dancing in the Moonlight". On April 14 wonderful sounds were heard from the band, "Early Morning". Girls looking pretty in their formals and guys looking stiff and handsome in suits were seen at this special occasion. Beautiful plants borrowed from Norman's Brentwood Nursery decorated the cafeteria. Finishing touches were added to make it a night to remember for ever more.

1973-74 is the year in which this class ventures into the start of new experiences and adventures. Decision making and soul searching were the seniors first task. Deadlines had to be met for colleges and universities in November. "How fast the years have gone" could be heard down the halls by the seniors. Three years down and one to go was the score.

The class set out to make it an unforgettable year. Homecoming was the target, their goal - three years of consecutive winning for the spirit trophy. Hard work and strong leaders accomplished this drive. An example of this loyalty could have been seen at 4:30 a.m., Homecoming Week, on campus. Either an early-bird or a class competitor could catch Rosy Stanton putting up posters for her class. She went on to receive the most spirited senior along with Steve Cruz. Homecoming arrived and worn-out, long-drawn faces of many seniors headed out to Ohmstede field for their last Homecoming of high school. Their spirit and enthusiasm was seen in the out come of the events. Once again they took first in the penny drive, egg race, poster contest, and clash day. These seniors set a new record, receiving the Homecoming trophy three consecutive years.

Something new arose from the traditional senior events. A trip to Disneyland on May 31, 1974 was offered to seniors and their dates. Many hard and long hours were put into this new activity. Credit can be given to the senior class officers: Rosemary Sciortino, president; Ed Laremore, vice president; Susan Giannini, secretary; Julia Lasater, treasurer; Anna Loreda, representative; and advisers Mrs. Jeanne Glenn and Mr. John Meyer, also the head of the Disneyland committee, Peggy Kelly. Three chartered buses full of excited seniors and their dates traveled to Disneyland on May 31. They left a 2 p.m. Friday and came back 5:30 p.m. Saturday. Grad night at Disneyland was something no one could forget.

The Edgewater Hyatt House was the scene on May 11, 1974 for the Senior Ball. New York steak was the main course with music by Liberty. This was just another special night for the Class of '74 to remember.

On June 7, 1974, we saw the seniors march down Ohmstede field for the last time to Band III's Pomp and Circumstances. One could catch glimpses of past memories in many senior's eyes. Fragments of yesterday pranced by fast and soon the graduates of the Class of '74 were no longer a part of Liberty. They could be seen being hugged by classmates, friends, and relatives. Following these ceremonies, a traditional graduation party was held by the Parents Club. One could not help but think that tonight they are together, but tomorrow this class would not be seen as a whole ever again. Each will venture into a new tomorrow, beginning act three of their lives.

Let's catch a look at 73-74's happenings. Can you still see Tony Ball's face with whip cream diligently given to him by Rosemary Sciortino, senior class president?

Homecoming proved what determined Juniors they are. Every contest entered was with a strong will and fight. They placed second in float competition with the theme, "Shoot 2 Victory". Their officers Tony Ball, president; Paula Graves, vice president; Roxanne Sciortino, secretary; Janet Smith, treasurer; Stella Rios, representative; and advisers Miss Nancy Doi and Mr. Herb Scott contributed much to the long hours spent to make it a successful year.

On April 6 the class sponsored "Pieces of April" for the Junior Prom. This is just one activity added to the pieces of the puzzle of high school life at Liberty.

Out yelling every class except the team at one rally are the powerful sophomores. The spirit of '76 proved to be strong as they placed second in float competition.

Advisers Miss Rita Pirtle and Mr. Jerry Black; officers Kathy Serna, president; Lisa Mune, vice president; Terri Tipton, secretary; Lori Modrall, treasurer; and Julie DeSair, representative decided upon an unusual theme, "Grind the Liver-more". This effective theme showed loyal classmates and that the spirit of '76 is alive and well at Liberty.

The Class of '77 started the year with many events - orientation, registration, Homecoming, and sports. Neither side swindled, they proved strong as they participated with spirit and enthusiasm in Homecoming. Sports proved strong as the Frosh football team were champions.

Helping to make it a year to remember were Andy Hernandez, president; Robert Rameriz, vice president; Rosemarie Martinez, secretary; Stacey Smith, treasurer; and advisers Mrs. Pat Claywell and Mr. Gary Wilson. With such enthusiasm and spirit, Liberty will have loyal support from the Class of '77.

Dances, homecoming, spirit, work, enthusiasm and school are all fragments of our memories. None of us will forget when the generator gave out during Homecoming, when our football team tied with the great San Ramon, going to school in the dark, assemblies to get out of class, and plays and concerts to listen and watch. All of these happenings are just a bit of our lives but they will long be in our hearts and memories.

Students Share Happy Moments

Sports

Planning, practicing, playing, winning, losing are all fragments of any sport performed by a team.

Returning for the last year of EBAL competition, football was first on the agenda. Handicapped with only a few returning lettermen and the freshly picked JV's, Coach Jack Ferrill and assistant coach Ron Enos began the long hard training sessions. A memorable game was when Liberty took first place San Ramon. Led by team captains Ed Laremore and Rodney Beaver, the small crew played their hearts out tying the score 21-21. The two wins, six loss record does not indicate the tremendous team effort, but only that they experienced a "hard luck season".

Most valuable player Ed Laremore was one of the facets to the spirit that overflowed in each game. Also contributing to the Lions success were first team all league members Rodney Beaver - defensive end; Marty Bacigalupi - offensive halfback; and voted to the second team all league were Dave Kersey - offensive and defensive tackle; Craig Bronzan - offensive quarterback; Bart Brussaard - offensive wide receiver; and Jorge Moreno - defensive lineman.

Starting the JV season were thirty young individuals playing against unbalanced odds. Despite setback after setback, they continued to have faith in themselves. "Rarely have I had the pleasure of working with a team who continued to maintain an excellent attitude and sincere effort right up to and through the last game," states Coach Larry Welch. Captains of such a loyal team were David Brussaard and Tony Berumen, and most valuable player was David Brussaard.

This year's fresh football was gifted with a total team effort. Coach Jerry Lilly and Coach John Rodgers combined unexperienced freshmen with thinking and talking football and came out with a winning team. Led by captains Mitch Ball and Jose Oseguera, they got it together to win the league championship. Participation was great both in number and spirit for all games. Most valuable player was Jose Oseguera.

Cross Country had a small turn out this year. Coach Herb Scott commented that the kids on the team were interested in running and they had a lot of fun. Most valuable player was Ken Shoras and team captain was Osvaldo Ramirez.

During mid-season of tennis, two top players were lost. With a lot of rookies and only a few seniors out for tennis the team suffered. Next year tennis will be a spring sport against the Foothill Athletic League but hopefully more interest in the sport will develop. The tennis team is coached by Coach Gerald Crawford.

Next came basketball and during the 1973-74 varsity campaign, Liberty posted a thirteen win, twelve loss record. Coach Jerry Miller stated "We are now getting the dedication from the players that is necessary in order to have a winning basketball program." Most valuable players were Ken Meadows and Jorge Moreno, two juniors who had an outstanding season. Added to their list of honors, Meadows was chosen Yuba City Invitational most valuable player and Moreno was ranked most valuable player at the Livermore - Granada Basketball Classic. Also high scorers were Armando Gasca and Marty Bacigalupi demonstrating tremendous leadership and providing great morale for the team.

Lacking leadership, the JV team went against a tough league. Pre-season they won half of their games. Coach Jerry Black stated that there was a lot of individual improvement. Ben Tutor was selected team captain by a vote by the team.

This year's freshmen basketball team achieved a twelve win, four loss season record and placed second in the East Bay Athletic League. Jose Oseguera led the team in both scoring and rebounding. Ken Nielsen and Alvin Sarmento both improved and brought added strength to the backboards. Strong leadership came from Mitch Ball and Kasper Graves. "This team's success can be attributed to the hustle and attitude of each individual player," stated Coach Kay Gispner.

The 1973-74 wrestling season was blessed with a few more boys out for the team than in previous years. The highlight of the season was the fact that Carlos Romero (in the 140 pound weight class) placed sixth at the state meet. He also is the first boy to place in state competition in any sport at Liberty Union High School. Coach Keith Dawson commented, "I feel that we will be looking for more prospects next year, as most of our boys this year were freshmen, sophomores, and juniors."

Soccer saw a lot of new faces this year and hopefully this exposure will bring more interested players next year. This was the fourth year we have successfully competed in league soccer and for the last three years we have lost only five home games. "The play during the first half of the season was very good but quality tapered off towards the end of the season," stated Coach Frank DeParsis. Jaime Melgoza made first string EBAL and Alvaro Reyes made second string. Going into the Foothill Athletic League next year, soccer will start in September instead of November, making playing conditions more applicable to Liberty's style of play. Honored as most valuable player was Jaime Melgoza and Alvaro Reyes and this year's team captain was Adolfo Jimenez.

Frustration was the name of the game for the small and inexperienced varsity baseball team. Injured in mid-season was team captain Ed Laremore. Playing the positions of pitcher and first basemen, Chris Bronzan and Jim Vawser combined their talents to help pull the team above water. Good pitching proved Bronzan to the rights of the most valuable player award. Controlled by costly errors, the Lions Baseball team closed the season with an eight win, eleven loss season record but their last game was their best. The Lions were victorious over the first place Amador Dons, beating them 2-1.

This year's JV team practiced total team effort and improved tremendously towards the end of the season. The team will remember the Dublin struggle that ended in a 4-3 victory for a long while. Most valuable player and pitcher for the Lion Cubs was sophomore Tony Berumen. Coach Jerry Black stated, "The kids have finally jelled into a fine baseball team and should develop into excellent varsity players." Leadline the team in batting were Tony Peters with a .297 batting average, Tony Berumen with a .273 batting average, Dave Dominguez with a .270 batting average, and Frank Hanson with a .262 batting average. Also Tony Peters was honored as team captain. The Lion Cubs closed the season with a seven win, five loss season record and ended third in the EBAL.

Enjoyable association with the players resulted in spirit and effort from the freshmen baseball team. "This team has a group of excellent athletes. Each one of the players improved tremendously throughout the season," commented Coach Larry Welch. This was Coach Welch's first year as a coach for freshmen baseball. The team ended with an 8-6 record.

This year's soft team worked on trying to improve the score for each match. The season was full of laughs and fun for all those involved. "Although we only won two matches, the attitude was fantastic," commented Coach Herb Scott.

The 1974 swim season has been successful in that the Fresh-Soph team won the EBAL Championship with the assistance of the first girls permitted on a boys athletic team. The varsity record was less impressive since all but five swimmers were Fresh-Soph, therefore leaving many events unswam. This year's team was led by captain Matt Henderson. Most valuable all event swimmer Alan Lereña is also this year's EBAL Fresh-Soph butterfly champion. Contributing to the successful diving season were Bill Ortiz (three time North Coast diver), Janet McNeill, and Paul Blacker. Coach Jack England coached the boy-girl swim team.

With warm sunshine days came the numerous track meets. The 1974 track season found Liberty with the smallest turn out since 1964 when Coach Keith Dawson first started coaching track. The few boys that represented Liberty did quite well. At the Ceres Tournament everyone brought home at least one medal. The Fresh-Soph team had a slight advantage with Mike Whitner, Tim Kent, Jose Oseguera, and Carl Ackery leading the way. Also the mile relay team of Carl Ackery, Mike Whitner, Jose Oseguera, and Scott Vincour set a record by more than 2.5 seconds. "With these kinds of prospects coming back and the fact we are moving into a new league leads us to believe we will improve in the future," commented Coach Dawson.

Volleyball started off the season for girls sports. Led by team captain Lupe Puente, the varsity squad placed third in the league and ended with a four win, three loss season record. Nancy Payne was this year's team captain for the JV's. Competing in EBAL, the Lions tied with Dublin for the league championship. The junior varsity team consisted of all freshmen and only one junior. The successful team closed with an almost perfect six win, one loss season record.

With twenty-one girls out for gymnastics and no uniforms, the team had a big chore of earning money. They successfully earned enough for uniforms and also received a donation of a new beam from the Soroptimist Club. Without access to uneven bars, the team did not participate in the event and lost at every meet. With enthusiasm and optimism, the team pulled through to the third place in the league. At the final league meet, Rosemary Sanchez came in fourth on floor exercise and fifth on the vault against forty-eight competitors. The gymnastic team respectfully said good-bye to their coach, Mrs. Karen England who had to retire because of pregnancy.

Next came tennis and most of the girls were playing competitively for the first time. This year's coach was Mr. William Snow. This was the first time a man has coached girls sports. "The girls had a successful season in that the girls learned to play better and enjoy tennis more," stated Coach Snow.

Softball season started off with Miss Kaye Axelgard as the new coach this year. With eighteen girls out for the team, the year was very successful. MaryAnn Greenwood had the highest batting average for the season. Closing the season with a five win, two loss season record, the team is looking forward to next year and a new league.

Two new awards were developed this year for girls. The first is the girl athletic of the year award. This involves a dedication to sports and participation in numerous sports. Athletic ability and sportsmanship was the key to this honor. Receiving the award were seniors Donna Sleeter and Robin Davis. The second award was most inspirational. This was based on a girl who put out 100 per cent, someone who is both dedicated and never quits. Honored this year was junior Val Gage.

Delta Recreation leader Bob White was pleased about this year's interest in recreational sports and is optimistic about next year's progress. The boys basketball league ran from January to February with eleven teams participating. Super Seven captured first place and the Warriors came in second.

Added to the department was a girls basketball league which consisted of six teams. First place winners were Val's Gals followed by the 4-her's (Heather Honeygers Hustling Hookers). Another favorite was co-recreation nights. This was a one night event that had team tournaments in volleyball and badminton. The volleyball champs were a team of Reid Beaver, Val Gage, Ed Laremore, Kathy Mendroza, Donna Sleeter, Rosy Stanton, and Jeff Wheeler. Winning badminton partners were Val Gage and Stephanie Ridgill. For many of the students who were unable to participate in team sports, they enjoyed recreation competition. More events are planned for next year and all interested are encouraged to participate.

During the summer of '73, sixteen girls selected by our student body ventured into the Santa Cruz mountains where their yelling camp was held. The week held many moments of achievements and advancements. Learning various routines, the singleleaders picked up new ideas and also two trophies. The cheerleading squad was also awarded the spirit stick twice. A new face appeared, Sue Fritner, as rally squad adviser. Along with change came an added girl to the JV squad with the absence of a mascot. Faced with the challenge of earning money, the girls did various tasks. Examples were cleaning house, salad lunches, cake sales, and car washes. The money earned went toward the girls uniforms.

Finishing off the year and saying good-bye to the East Bay Athletic League, the many people involved in sports have come to understand the challenge of winning a game and accepting defeat. Next year we shall venture into the Foothill Athletic League with hopes of a better tomorrow.

Activities

Part of any school programs include good activities involving students, teachers, community members, queens and majorettes in a thing called Homecoming.

On June 7 the Senior Class of '74 took their last steps as students of LUHS. Heather Honegger and Rob Knight were honored as Valedictorian and Salutatorian respectively. The traditional ceremonies of a high school graduation pranced through their lives as the LUHS band played pomp and circumstance. Soon the Class of '74 existed no more. A graduation party given by the Parents Club closed their book of fragments with the fond memories of any high school graduation and high school life.

Our 1973-74 school year began with the traditional Barn Dance sponsored by FFA. At the stroke of 10 p.m. Joey DeBorba, president of FFA, lead the way to the center of Stonebarger Gym to announce our 1973-74 FFA Sweetheart. Leigh Ann Austin, Laura Kaplan, Krim Michaud, Cindy Modrall, and Laura Serna were escorted by FFA members. The traditional corsage was pinned to each girl. Standing in front of the band, the girls were announced individually by their escort. Finally, the sweetest girl in the eyes of all FFA members was announced, Krim Michaud. She received a traditional kiss from president Joey DeBorba plus the honor of becoming FFA's Sweetheart. Each girl received a bracelet as a memory of the occasion. Without a second to spare, heads turned as the screams and shrills of the doors opened once more with boys and girls tossing each other into the hay. FFA succeeded once again in sponsoring a fantastic dance.

Next on the school calendar was the event that raises Liberty's spirit to its highest peak. Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors began their fight for the possession of the Homecoming spirit trophy as the earliest Homecoming known to Liberty - October 12, 1973 - came our way. Long before this date Commissioner of Athletics, Heather Honegger, and her committee began preparations to make a beautiful Homecoming happen. Let's not forget president of Pep Club, Junie Yonemura, and her crew who were in charge of spirit week. Their work left a happy, exciting week for the school to enjoy.

Along with the anxieties floating in the air, more excitement was revealed. Cyndi Celoni, Erica Dawson, Lizzie Dominguez, Diana Galletti, Laura Kaplan, Lori Kirkpatrick, Cindy Modrall, Roseann Sciortino, Valerie Sciortino, and Laura Serna were selected by the Student Body as the Top Ten of the senior class. Following this excitement, these girls names were put on a ballot for the selection of five, chosen by our varsity football team. Lori Kirkpatrick, Laura Kaplan, Cindy Modrall, Valerie Sciortino, and Laura Serna were the pretty girls chosen by the football team.

And after many weeks of planning and preparing, Homecoming arrived. The day started early for many; driving their cars decorated as much as possible. Cars honked all morning long as long lines of cars participated. With only four periods of class, the Student Body headed toward Ohmstede field for an afternoon of races and spirit. Each class and faculty participated, giving all they had to do the others.

After the many exasperating events, the Student Body assembled in Stonebarger Gym for the hottest and loudest rally of the year. After an hour of screaming ones lungs out the big moments of the day came; the winner of the rally and the Homecoming trophy, and the most important one - the announcement of our queen. Shereley Jensen, Commissioner of Rallies, announced the Sophomores as the winner of the rally and the seniors as the winners of the Homecoming trophy. Dr. Michael Adams announced Laura Serna as our 1973-74 Homecoming Queen. Tears, screams, and happiness flowed through all.

The afternoon events did not mark the end of Homecoming. The best was yet to come. A parade started the evening with a line of floats, bands, runnerups, and our queen rode down the streets of Brentwood to Ohmstede field in a grand manner. Half-time ceremonies were marked by a light show beautifully displayed by LUHS marching band. The lights were lit as Kathy Sciortino, 1972-73 Homecoming Queen, crowned Laura Serna as the band played "Let me call you Sweetheart". Following these royal and traditional ceremonies, a Homecoming dance was sponsored by the Junior Class.

Active clubs provided activities for the students also. AFS sponsored an International Christmas with food displayed from all countries. Jan Duncan, AFS Exchange Student, felt at home with her native food of Ireland and the students of Liberty were given a chance to become closer to the world.

CSF provided a carnival of fun and games brought to you by Ross Last president and a lot of hard working CSF members. The Boys Block "L" entertained us with the Harlem Clowns once again in Stonebarger Gym. They appeared on March 14, 1974, playing against the best shooters of the recreation department. They proved to be entertaining and talented as they beat their opponents. Speaking of clubs, FFA sponsored a Donkey Basketball game as their tradition goes on, a Luau dinner honoring FFA'ers with awards, and participating in the Contra Costa and Stockton fairs.

The sophomores and juniors each held a special night for their classes to enjoy. Picking "In the Still of the Night" as their theme on April 26, 1974, the sophomores held the annual Sophomore Hop at the LUHS cafeteria. Their queen and king were announced as Sandi DelBarba and Greg Robinson. Runnerup princesses were Debbie Celoni, Ruth Maiocco, Faye Pastor, and Kaye Pastor, and the runner-up princes were Tony Berumen, David Broussard, Bobby DePiazza, and David Hernandez.

April 6, 1974 was the date picked for the Junior Prom held at the LUHS cafeteria. Complimenting their theme, "Pieces of April", was the music by Maddness.

The seniors chose the Edgewater Hyatt House as their location for their royal celebration. New York Steak along with salad, vegetables, rolls, potatoes, and desert was the chosen dinner voted by the class of '74. The band "Liberty" provided the music enjoyed by all who went. All of these nights will leave warm memories in all students and faculty who participated.

Our art department gave Liberty a chance to enjoy the distribution of creation held in Stonebarger Gym on May 20 and 21, 1974. Beautiful wood and art objects hand-made by LUHS students gave the gym a sparkle shown to all Liberty students and the public.

Fantastically displaying talent were the music and the drama departments. Mr. Phil DeVine, Mr. Alan Jones, and Mr. Steve Brunsvold got it all together producing three plays and seven music concerts. These were enjoyed by all who attended.

Peter Pan; You're a Good Man Charlie Brown; and the melodramas of Egad, What a Cad; Vaudeville; Fireman, Save my Child; and Dora, the Dishwasher were the plays brought to the students and the public by Playmakers. A year of new ideas and hard work gave Liberty performances that everyone loved to listen and see. This was the first year a musical (You're a Good Man Charlie Brown) was produced at Liberty and there will be many more to come.

The Class of '74 truly made their senior year an "unforgettable" year as they headed to Disneyland on May 31, 1974. The first time offered to Liberty, the seniors took the opportunity by loading three greyhound buses full. Arriving home the next day, many memories could be added to their bulging book of fragments of high school. The traditional senior picnic was held at Oak Park in Stockton on May 28, 1974. Roller skating, swimming, baseball, and all the other picnic fun was provided.

1973-74 school year saw many awards and honors given out. On May 1, 1974 the first awards assembly was given by CSF. It was their yearly honors dinner honoring the top ten in the freshmen, sophomore, junior, and senior classes and the top scholars. Next FFA honored their members. Held in the cafeteria Luau style, pins and plaques were awarded to the deserving participants. This took place on May 15, 1974 in the LUHS cafeteria.

The big assembly of the year came on May 29, 1974. Everyone at Liberty crowded Stonebarger Gym to watch the seniors receive scholarships and awards. Curriculum

Working together is only a portion of teacher - student relations.

Leading the board and school for the 73-74 school year was Joe L. Smith, president, and Leonard Celoni, clerk, Mr. Smith is a safety engineer for a local industrial firm, while Mr. Celoni is the manager of the Oakley Water Distribution. Other members of the board were H. John Bloomfield and Leonard Gerry; both farmers.

Taking aim on community education, Dr. Michael Adams, superintendent, was working to mobilize available human and financial resources of the total East County area to meet the needs and wants of the youth and adults in the five separate communities and total area. Dr. Adams was also concerned with systematizing the curriculum programs, studying facilities to fit the enrollment of the school and assisting students and staff in education- considered by him to be the most important.

Helping to organize a citizen's committee on education planning was the main goal of Principal Lou Bronzan, one of the administrators assisting Dr. Adams. Vice-principal Gerald Clayburn remarked that Liberty continued to lead other schools in good behavior and fewer discipline problems. Mr. Vernon Noble, the other vice-principal, commented that freshmen were programmed by computer this fall to try to solve some of the previous problems of Freshmen Merry-Go-Round Day.

Involving themselves with the physical and mental health of the student body were the tasks of school nurse, Miss Barbara Bonnicksen and psychologist, Mrs. June Drake. Miss Bonnicksen also assisted with the Candy Striper program at Delta Memorial Hospital.

Experiencing education through work outside the school consisted of programs using cooperative efforts of the school and community to help students develop occupational understanding from direct participation in the work environment. Students, who were developing good work habits, mature through working with adults and improve their possibility for summer or future employment. Not only did the school assist the student with job placement but also grants a school grade and graduation credit to the student who has satisfactory performance on the job. In charge of the program is Mr. David Kirby.

Working with a special program, opportunity attempts to get students back into the regular school curriculum. The program, designed for those under 16, earns students credits by the hour and was directed by Mr. Dewel Morgan.

Combining talents with the drama teacher in the production of "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" was first year teacher Mr. Steve Brunsvold of the Music Department. This year stage band theory, a course for people interested in writing for stage band, was added to the music curriculum. Mr. Allan Jones said that a beginning guitar class and pop chorus will be added for the '74-'75 school year.

Expanding bachelor living to a full year course was proposed by the Homemaking Department. Along with the introduction of foreign cooking to Homemaking II, Department Chairman, Mrs. Gayl Krumland, remarked that there was an increased interest in clothing.

Discovering computers was a new course added to the Business Department this year. The department hopes to expand that and business writing into full year courses. Proposed for next year is You and Law and Business Law.

Offering the meat processing class not only both semesters but also for two periods is one aim of the Ag Department for next year. The department has more students than ever before enrolled and hopes to continue interest in public speaking, specifically the Lions Club Speech Contest. Also new for the year was the tagging of fish by the students.

Considering the change in the structure of the Language Arts selective program was a suggestion made by students involved in the school curriculum. The department was also involved in developing a skills program for all English courses and a state wide reading improvement program. They added a second year of creative writing. New to the department were Ms. Linda Nicolson and Mr. Philip Devine.

Changing the second semester of 9-10 to a selective program was one project undertaken by the Social Studies Department. New courses were added including current events and ancient civilizations. Both freshmen and sophomores were allowed to choose their courses for the second semester. Plans for the '74-'75 school year included offering world religions, current world problems, and world ideologies for freshmen and sophomores. California governments was offered to 11-12 graders. Mr. John Armenta joined the department.

Taking algebra as eighth graders necessitated offering geometry classes to incoming freshmen for '74-'75 remarked Math Department Chairman Jerry Crawford. Teaching Math and Algebra IB plus assisting in varsity football was new teacher Mr. Ron Enos.

Introducing a pilot program was one task undertaken by the P.E. Department this past year. The new course, for '74-'75, is called independent study and provides an opportunity for junior and senior boys to fulfill P.E. requirements other than participating in the regular classes. After meeting entrance requirements they are required to have 30 hours of physical activity per quarter and meet once weekly on assigned days. Girls' P.E. will offer an advanced program that includes softball, gymnastics, volleyball and lifesaving. Girls may sign up for one or all four but instructor permission is required.

Studying the structure and function of the human body (physiology) was a course offered to seniors in the Science Department this year. The department split General Science IB into separate semesters with life sciences taught by Mr. Jerry Black and physical sciences by Mr. Dennis Buckley. Physics students saw the introduction of the Harvard Project Physics that was designed to be a humanistically oriented physics course.

Anticipating ROP (Regional Occupation Program), the Applied Arts Department proposed these classes: combination welding; taxi-dermy; engine analysis tune up and power train; engine construction, operation and repair; environmental landscaping; tools and equipment; animal slaughtering, butchering and processing; and construction technology. Three new teachers were added to the department- Mr. Ken Harris, Mr. Doug Kirk and Mr. Gary Wilson.

Installing new lights in classrooms and painting the doors different colors occupied part of the time of grounds and buildings crew. Grounds and locker clean up kept custodians busy, as usual, remarked Mr. Frank Souza, head custodian.

Filling the bus tanks with gas became a real problem for the Transportation Department. The allotment was cut in January, February, and March; with the cut in March so severe the superintendent was forced to ask Sacramento for an increased allocation to keep buses running. There was little problem in obtaining diesel fuel.

Smiling new faces were added to the secretarial staff this year. Assisting Mr. David Kirby in the WEE office was Mrs. Pam Currier. Two new faces were added to the attendance office with Ms. Mary Manko and Mrs. Pat St. John. Miss Denise Castello joined Mrs. Billie Fortner in the administration office to aid in typing federal projects.

Introducing burritos to the daily ala carte menu helped the cafeteria crew offer students and staff an expanded menu for the school. Repairing machinery kept maintenance men occupied in the cafeteria to keep food moving out.

Affecting the entire school, students and staff, the energy crises posed numerous problems for all. Field trips were reduced or eliminated, driver's training was cancelled toward the ends of some months, problems in just getting to school arose and waiting in line became but a FRAGMENT of the life of the people here at Liberty Union High School.

SUPPORT THE ADVERTISERS

The Annual Staff

WORKING hard to meet a deadline is Kym Wallace. She is working on the activities section.

WHAT a way to focus a camera. Leonard Giannini, student photographer, attempts a shot.

Thanks To Those Who Help

A successful yearbook can not be done by one person or two editors; it takes many hands and hours of working together to achieve this. We feel we have had this behind us from the very beginning. This year proved to be a trying and questionable year but with the help of everyone concerned it was a successful year.

Thanks can go everywhere - for you buying your yearbook; Mr. William Batze, our advisor, who stuck behind us no matter what, giving us the push of encouragement we all need, our staff who never gave up and always worked for and with us; Crete Studios of Lodi for their photography; the Liberty Union High School district; and everyone's continued support. And a special thanks to Bill Stephenson and American Yearbook Co.

Sincerely,

Marlene Modrall

This year the 1974 Annual Staff ventured into a new and a different book. Filled with new ideas and excitement the staff began its creating. Our first ordeal was the cover. Stepping aside from our traditional cover of school color-cardinal and gold, we chose a beautiful sunset with the background of darkness. Our theme "Fragments 74" sets the meaning of the yearbook. Next came the change of division pages. A double division page was used with the writing of the subject opposite the picture, taking the place of a single division page and numerous copy blocks in each event. This was done to make more room for pictures and interest to our readers. And last but not least we had color end sheets with a picture of Liberty Union High School marching band, rally squad, football players, and rooters.

As Co-Editors, we feel we are speaking for our staff and us saying we tried our best in making this a good yearbook. We hope all of you enjoy your yearbook of "Fragments 74" and treasure your years at Liberty High School.

TAKING time out from a busy job of filing and sorting pictures is Cyndi Celoni.

WALKING off campus to try and sell ads to Brentwood merchants is Debbie Celoni.

POSING for an ad picture is Ruth Maiocco. She not only poses but sells ads.

TRYING to collect money from Margaret Rodriguez is Debra Maggiora. Debra is in charge of yearbook sales and payments.

DISPLAYING extraordinary talent is Francious the stripper alias Frank Clark. Francious was specially flown in from gay Paree.

SHOCKED by the villians treachery, Mr. John Armenta and Jan Stolhand listen as Lauri Bausch tells of her broken heart.

UNDERCOVER policewoman Miss Rita Pirtle holds a conversation about an old soap salesman with the sinister-looking villain Gary Andrade.

IN the vadeville chorus line are Curvacious Currier, Twinkle Toes Ackerman, Bee Bop Billie, Bubbles Beck and Carefree Clay.

READY to wisk his sweat-heart away is John Armenta. He just returned from the city and is asking Jan Stolhand to be his wife.

GOING to his girlfriend's house is John Gomes. Smothering Linda Planchon with compliments he hopes she'll marry him.

BOB DEPIAZZA is caught carving his name or his love by an annual staff camera.

THE CADENCE of these three drummers leads the LUHS marching band.

DO I LOOK OLDER? wonders David Snow as Lori Miller fixes his hair to perfection.

SEEING trouble on the floor are Anthony Serna, Coach Miller, and Coach Giggeri.

GREG ROBINSON and Lori Celsoni ponder over a piece of paper as they enjoy the sunshine.

DELHA WOOD and Teresa Kingsbury record satistics of a track event at Ohmstede field. They are just two of many girls needed to chart and time track events at home meets.

"BE CAREFUL NOT TO SMEAR IT JULIE." Julie Conway is seen here putting mascare on her bottom lashes as she makes final preparations before she goes on stage.

READING isn't the only thing you do in the library as Florence Carmona proves it. Talking is enjoyed too.

BILLY ORTEZ and Chuck Russo calmly relax during their lunch period under the sun.

"HEY! Liberty Lions won!" shouts Rick Cero out a rooters bus window. He is loaded up and ready for a victorious ride home full of spirit and fun.

TRYING hard not to make a mistake on their schedules are Joe Carreon and Joe Briseno.

MYSTERIOUS Frank Clark is in the dark as he reads lines for music in the play "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown".

SQUATTING Janet McNeil is worrying about her next event. Alan Loredro, behind her, just finished winning his relay.

READY and willing are Darlene Stewart and Fred Bennett boarding the bus as they prepare to go home after a long day at school.

THE "SHOW OFFS" of the Dixie Land Band are seen here taking a break. Juliette Bettencourt, Frank Clark, and Devon Brooks are their names.

Liberty Students Show Their Many Faces

DELINDA VILES hurries into the cafeteria hoping to find a place to sit at lunch.

VARSITY wrestler Jimmy Kuryla has the better side of his opponent as he tries to turn him over.

HALF ASLEEP is Linda Planchon as she waits to play her flute in a practice session.

"THAT'S ME!" looks Greg Davis as Lauri Bausch looks at the final preparations.

"I CAN'T SEEM TO FIND THAT WORD" thinks Shelly Priddy as she looks in an encyclopedia while in the library studying. The library has many books and magazines to find information in.

Hope You Like Our Book

SEEN THROUGH "legs of an unknown" are Ross Last and Greg Kelly. They are rehearsing the play "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown."

CONCENTRATING on which class to take is Greg Wong, a sophomore. He is signing up for one of many English classes from Mr. Ellrie VonSchopp, dept. head.

GIVING ALL he has got is freshman Scott Vinecour. He is participating in the long jump during JV competition against a visiting school at Liberty High School.

COULD it be an UFO? No, it is just Liberty's irrigation system watering one of many green lawns used for visiting and shade at lunch time and leisure.
